

January 28, 2018: The 33rd Sunday after Pentecost (the Publican and the Pharisee)

Epistle reading: II Tim. 3:10-15:

"But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance, persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra—what persecutions I endured. And out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Gospel reading: Luke 18:10-14:

"Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.' And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!'

I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

With the Sunday of the Publican and the Pharisee we begin a new chapter in the Ecclesiastical year: THE TRIODION, which runs until Great Saturday (Easter Eve).

The Triodion is the time of repentance and spiritual cleansing, which takes us through three weeks of preparation for the unique journey of Great Lent, whose highlight is the Holy Week. The Triodion runs until the Great and Holy Saturday, the eve of the Lord's Resurrection.

The Church announces this event at the Matins service of this week with some beautiful hymns/prayers, such as: "Open to me the doors of repentance, O, Giver of Life...", which is sung through the entire period of the Triodion.

This comes in the context of the Gospel reading, which portrays the "Two men who went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector," and their completely opposite attitude while praying. The Pharisee stands in arrogance and pride in front of the Temple and lists all the good deeds he had acquired, despising at the same time his fellow worshiper, the Publican, who, in total humility and overcome with the genuine spirit of repentance, prays and says: "God, be merciful to me a sinner!"

The two men represent the two categories of people/Christians who attend the same church service but return to their homes with different results, based on the attitude and the intent they came to church with.

May the Good and Merciful God give us the the Publican's humility and spirit of repentance!

From our MP

Dear Rev. George Bazgan,

I'm writing to let you know that the application period to apply for a Canada Summer Jobs grant closes February 2, 2018. I encourage all interested parties to apply AND ask that all applicants from Edmonton Griesbach notify my office at kerry.diotte.c1@parl.gc.ca that they have done so. Previously, decisions have been made through a rating scale for applications. As many applicants as possible received approval based on the funding available.

This year the Trudeau Liberals are interfering with the application process. They are demanding that applicants sign an 'attestation' that supports specific values chosen by the federal Liberals. If an applicant is unable to sign this in good conscience we suggest that they write on the application (near the attestation) "We fully support the rights found in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms" and send in their application.

It is critical that you inform our office of your application and your inability to sign the attestation. We will work to make changes to ensure no student in Edmonton Griesbach is punished because of the Liberal 'value declaration' that is being forced on applicants to the Canada Summer Jobs Program.

Application information can be found at:
www.canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/funding/canada-summer-jobs.html

Sincerely,

Kerry Diotte, M.P.
